

March 2009

Dear Friends:

We are having a Lenten Day of Recollection on Saturday, March 28, 2009 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary conducted by Rev. Augustine M. Esposito, O.S.A., Ph.D., President of Monsignor Bonner and Archbishop Prendergast High School. Father Esposito was previously Chair of the Pastoral Theology Department and Assistant Professor of Theology and Spanish at the Seminary. He is the author of the book Mistico Ciudad de Dios, a critical study of The Mystical City of God by Venerable Mary of Agreda.

The day will start with 9:00 a.m. Mass in Immaculate Conception Chapel and will include conferences, time for Eucharistic Adoration, and opportunity for confession. Lunch will be served, and reservations are required, with a reduced student rate and no fee charged for priests, sisters, and seminarians.

We would be most appreciative if you could assist us in promoting this day by posting the enclosed flyer in the vestibule of your parish church, with the permission of your pastor.

On Saturday, September 19, 2009 we are having our fall conference at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. We are happy to announce that our speaker for the entire day will be Dr. Scott Hahn, noted scripture scholar, author and lecturer. Please mark this day on your calendar.

We look forward to having you join us for this spiritually uplifting day as we prepare for Easter. God bless.

Sincerely,

Anne M. Wilson, Chairman
